AN EXCLUSIVE URBAN LIFESTYLE CONCEPT

Kingswood Golf Estate property offers you an exclusive urban lifestyle concept all in one distinctive estate.

Kingswood Golf Estate is situated in the heart of the Garden Route's golf hub. Minutes away from the center of George and the airport, this 212ha estate is ideally positioned as a gated community with the sense of space that a golf course should provide. With its crisp, clean Cape Vernacular architecture, vacant stands and architectural guidelines.

Kingswood Golf Estate in George combines the very best in modern convenience with memorable designs in both its townhouses and tailored houses. The estate itself is perfectly placed between the Fancourt Links and George Golf Course making it perfect for anyone who enjoys spending their days on a golf course.

The Kingswood Golf Estate product is unashamedly aimed at the buy-to-live South African residential market, offering a good investment and excellent value for money. The estate is popular with people having relocated here from elsewhere not only in the country, but also those in George or on the Garden Route, attracted by its position and setting within George and within a gated community.

Kingswood Ridge

This portion of the estate, arguably the best position on the estate, with its magnificent north orientation overlooking the whole estate towards the Outeniqua Mountains, is soon to be launched.

Careful consideration has been made in ensuring that the vacant stands are slightly wider than the rest of the estate allowing for maximization of the northern orientation. In addition, early indications are that a mixture of stand sizes ranging from ± 600 to almost $\pm 3\,000\text{ m}^2$, with appropriate architectural guidelines, ensures that this sought after position will be well received. It doesn't get better than this at Kingswood!
